

Pantheon Appoints New Co-Investment Partner

Pantheon is pleased to welcome Matt Cashion as an investment Partner in our global private equity Co-investment Team.

Matt joined Pantheon's New York office earlier this month providing additional senior-level presence on the east coast where Matt will lead the sourcing and execution of co-investment deals, contribute to fundraising and manage certain GP relationships.

Matt joins at a time of strong growth and momentum for Pantheon's Co-investment platform which has grown threefold over the past five years and now manages $7.2bn of co-investment assets<sup>1</sup> for Pantheon clients. Over the past five years, Pantheon has been one of the more active co-investors in the market, committing over $3bn to 132 co-investments.

Matt brings over 22 years of experience from GoldPoint Partners where he also led GoldPoint's ESG efforts.

"We are delighted to be joined by Matt who will further strengthen and enhance our co-investment efforts as we approach a busy year end and 2021," commented Jeff Miller, Global Head of Co-investments. "Matt brings a wealth of experience executing co-investments, middle-market fund investments, and direct mezzanine investments. On behalf of my colleagues and Partners, I would like to welcome Matt – we are all looking forward to working with him."
