

Pantheon promotes two to Partner, enhances senior Investment and Investor Relations team leadership

Pantheon, a leading global private markets investor, is pleased to announce three senior promotions as part of its annual promotion round, enhancing leadership in the firm's Investment and Investor Relations teams.

- David Elliott is promoted to Partner in Pantheon's Real Estate team, which was established in 2021 to provide liquidity capital solutions to real estate operators and platforms, including through its differentiated approach to secondary investments.
- Justin Mallis is promoted to Partner in Pantheon's Global Investor Relations team, where he leads the firm's product strategy and campaign management function.
- Cecile Ross is promoted to Managing Director in the US Private Equity Investment team, where she focuses on primary fund commitments and co-investments and is a member of Pantheon's US Investment Committee.

Paul Ward, Managing Partner, commented: "I am very pleased today to recognize the contribution of colleagues from across our business through our annual promotion round. Harnessing the specialist expertise and initiative of all of our people is the cornerstone of Pantheon's culture – and it is the key to delivering on our mission to invest with purpose and lead with expertise, to build secure financial futures."
